BEHAVIOR POLICY FOR SUMMER CAMP

Every child from Preschool – After School will be allowed to attend the field trips. However, parents please be aware that if your child is misbehaving while we are out on a field trip, they will not be allowed to attend any more activities outside of the building; unless a family member will be attending with them. Please understand that even though our teachers are trained for every situation, it's also impossible for our teachers to offer one-on-one attention while we are outside of our center. Thank you for understanding and your cooperation.
